Stripe: frontend hiring + acquihires

Hi folks -- I posted a few months ago about acquisitions and leadership hiring at Stripe. A lot of people reached out and we've made some great hires. Those individuals are now leading some major projects at Stripe. We have a particularly acute need for frontend teams right now, to do things like build the

Launch Bookface: Actiondesk (YC S19) Edit your data from any application on a spreadsheet

Hi YC fellows, Do you feel it's a pain to edit record by record data in your CRM or other apps? We're testing a new iteration of our product where you can create a spreadsheet connected to data from any app, edit that data in the spreadsheet and have a two way sync between the spreadsheet and the app. Our ask: If you

Advice/help on ios app submission rejection (using celebrity photos)

I'm wondering if any has experience with the following reason for rejection. "Your app or its metadata appears to contain misleading content. Specifically, your app includes content that resembles several brand names without the necessary authorization. Also, upon further review, we found that your app includes images

Books on Business similar to Patagonia's Yvon Chouinard Let My People Go Surfing?

I found Chouinard's book extremely refreshing and a different perspective from most books I've read on building businesses. Does anyone know of any books that write about similar values and strategies in growing businesses? I guess any recommendations for creating successful B corporations would be the

Can anyone provide clarity on how OfferUp serves their ads on mobile?

I want to show relevant product ads that blend in with a product list being viewed, just like OfferUp does. For example, if you search "Patagonia jacket" on OfferUp, they will show ads that take you to 3rd party retailers with something very close to what you searched for. I can't seem to find a mobile ad platform

Anyone have experience with US border crossings? Perhaps know a lawyer?

Hello all, I have a friend who has had difficult experiences at the US border despite having a visa. She has an upcoming trip planned and is worried that she might be heavily interrogated or denied entry. Does anyone have experience navigating their way through this or know a lawyer that specializes in such a

Contractor to help run SaaS customer segmentation & persona creation

I'm looking to get a little help going deeper on our customers. We have existing personas but I feel like they have gone stale and I'd like a new set of eyes on the problem. I would like to understand: Who are our customers? What motivates them to look for a solution in our space? Why did they choose
